

SHARE.
EXPERIENCE.
GROW.

PASSPORT MENTORING

A woman with short dark hair, wearing a dark blazer over a light-colored collared shirt, is smiling and holding a white sign. The sign features the text 'PASSPORT MENTORING' in green and blue, with a green circular icon containing a white compass needle pointing towards the top right. The background is a vibrant blue with white sunburst rays emanating from behind the woman.

A guide for mentors. Share your unique skills and challenge yourself to grow in unexpected ways.

Turn the page and start today!

Help a student to recognize possibilities

Help a student who has an intellectual disability explore their talents and interests

“Let everything you do be done as if it makes a difference.” - William James

Passport Mentoring

Becoming a mentor allows you to:

- Share something you are passionate about
- Empower students to make decisions about what's possible for their future
- Challenge yourself and grow in unexpected ways
- Teach a student something new
- Be a role model

Share. Experience. Grow.

We each have unique skills and gifts to share.

Help someone learn something new:

- Inspire possibilities
- Share your knowledge and experience
- Invite someone to Share. Experience. Grow.

Mentoring gives you an opportunity to:

- Contribute to your community
- Share your experience
- Be a role model
- Build leadership
- Inspire a student

“Our growth is determined by the size of our world. It’s not so much the dimensions of the world, but the mental, emotional, spiritual and physical opportunities we are exposed to” - Glenn VanEkeren

“There is no beginning too small”
- Henry David Thoreau

Getting Started:

We are looking for enthusiastic people who would like to share their work experiences, or a particular area of interest or expertise.

If you think this is you, call 1-800-278-8025

mentoring@communitylivingontario.ca